Everyone wants to tell you they make the best leather furniture so at times it can get confusing. CR's exclusive survey finds that you can get high quality and impressive customer service at both brick-and-mortar and online furniture stores. Quality of Leather hides used. It is generally recognized that solid hardwoods for framing, springs of coil shape, like true 8 way hand tied seating, and heavy innerspring cushions will provide longer use and comfort than products built with lesser specifications. Always purchase the best that is in your budget and you should enjoy many years of use from your leather upholstery. We set out to be objective as possible; these are strictly our opinions. Seating and Back Suspension. Last review.(Aug 1996-Aug 2021) Owner Quality and thickness of framing materials used. Many factors come into play here (climate, amount of use, size and weight of user, children, application, i.e.: residential or commercial etc.) as durability and lifespan are dictated. Warranties and sometimes prices are not always indicative to a quality product, some manufacturers over warranty then fall short on servicing.
