Image by Marco-willy from Pixabay! have recently heard David Icke refer to what is going on right now as The Hunger Games society and I am sure that many more people have also felt inspired to reference The Hunger Games movie in relation to our current situation. Much in the same way that a wave of people around 2012 to 2013, were inspired to re-watch The Matrix and to start referring to the awakening process as 'being red pill'd', myself included, many of us now are also being collectively inspired, by both spirit and the collective consciousness itself, to be saying, thinking and channelling almost identical things. This IS the revolution of consciousness, the revolution of our hearts and minds — the Great Awakening that has been forever prophesied and is now finally ready to be seen. As our hearts and minds start to soar into this collective consciousness, this divine power and wisdom, we can not help but tap into all that is there for us to see, all that is there for us to know and all that is there for us to feel. We can not help but to be pulled into the wave of change that pulls at our hearts and pulls at our minds and tells us to rise up — rise up from our slumber, rise up from the lies and rise up from all that has held us captive. Now is the time for each and every one of us to step into our power and start to play our roles, leaving our fears and worries behind. For what we shall face if we do not play our parts is far greater than any retribution that may come from playing them. Nothing can be done to stop this Great Awakening now — the wheels are already turning, the prophecy is already in motion but we, the people, decide the bumpiness or the smoothness of this ride that we call life! Every single one of us holds a piece of the jigsaw puzzle — yes, some may hold bigger parts of the picture and yes, we are each powerful in our own individual right, but collectively we bring the whole picture together as we stand together in strength and unity consciousness. Matter not if you do not yet know your role for some will become inspired by the new diversity of life that will be presented as this journey starts to unfold, whilst others will already know exactly what they came here to do and will help to lead the way by shining their light of love and truth on the current situation. But for this awakening to proceed in its predicted smoothness, we all must awaken to truth. We all must challenge the boundaries of our minds and allow the darkness to be seen in order to vanquish it to the place from which it came. This may not be easy for we are being asked to challenge all that we believe ourselves to be in order to become all that we truly can be. All that we truly can be is greatness but we must release the shackles of bondage from around our feet that have held us captive to a system that serves but a few. This is a bloodless battle — a battle to consciousness if you will that will go down as the greatest battle of all time. A battle that we shall tell our grandchildren that we fought in gallantly, not with violence but instead with knowledge and wisdom and love. The 'uprising' has already started to occur — you can see it wherever you turn, should your eyes be open. Much like in The Hunger Games movie, 'the districts' have started to fight back but 'The Capitol' in its desperate bid to continue to hold control over us, tries to keep this knowledge from us by not reporting these uprisings in the mainstream media, but once these wheels are set in motion, the energy of change can not be stopped. It is important to recognise the message in the movie, that we must be careful not to take our power back from one dictatorial programme to then promptly hand our power over to another. We must learn to embrace and to hold onto our own power whilst also recognising how to each use our own individual power for the collective good of mankind. We must learn to come together in love and in mutual respect and understanding of each other's gifts, talents and dreams, as we collectively create a world that is fair for all, based on each of our individual gifts, talents and dreams. For this is how we shall create this whole new world that I speak of and this how we shall reconnect with the magic that we truly are. So for now, as this whole new world starts to take formation, allow yourself to awaken from all that you have been taught. Allow the truth to trigger all that it needs to trigger in order for you to grow into the true potential of the magical being that you are. Allow yourself to be shaken to your very core for this is what is needed to leave the old behind and allow the new to blossom into the beauty that it shall be. Allow yourself to be swept away with the movement of this revolution of consciousness that is set to touch each and every one of us. Open your arms to the change that is happening inside each of our hearts and minds. BE the change that you wish to see. And as you open your mind to all of this wonder, you will start to recognise that 'this is the revolution and YOU are the Mockingjay!' In this third LondonReal interview, David Icke exposes the Cult that is at the top of the Hunger Games society pyramid. He tells the Truth who those people are and how it all works. He explains again why COVID-19 is fake and how the Cult is using it to get their plans done and how all these psychopaths are connected. He goes into fundamental health dangers of 5G. We would like to share this interview with you, because we feel that it has lots of valuable information. As David says - we all have to do and to say what we know is right. That is exactly what we are going to do here at ImpartialTruth.com. Because we Love Truth! David Icke's strongest book to date, The Robots' Rebellion reveals the alarming extent to which people of all nations are programmed by the ideas fed to them by those in power. We live in a world which is increasingly dominated by technology but, according to Icke, it is we who are the robots. Fearlessly, he tears down the veils of hypocrisy, built up for generations by the corrupt forces of Church, State, science and commerce — and reveals the true pathos of the human condition beneath. He points, too, to the frightening influence wielded throughout the planet by a merciless and manipulative network of secret societies. The existence of long-established links between Earth-bound humanity and beings from other dimensions and planets in the Universe has been suppressed for years, says Icke, by the world's power-broking hierarchy. When ordinary people learn the real role they have to play within a rich and varied cosmic society, rebellion against those who have kept this extraordinary truth from them will, he predicts, be inevitable. The author is no stranger to controversy. Formerly best-known as a TV sports commentator and leading spokesman for the British Green Party, he is gaining increasing authority as a tireless campaigner for truth. His widely-publicised spiritual transformation has given him the courage to speak out fearlessly against lies and deceit. Hidebound politicians, bankers, economists, educationalists, scientists and the leaders of the world's established religions are not going to welcome Icke's challenging book. But it is not intended for those who wield and abuse power. This book is for the world's unwilling robots who, says Icke, in an upbeat conclusion, have it within themselves to rise up — and take control of their own exciting destiny. The Robots' Rebellion: Table of Contents Introduction Remember Who You Are PART ONE: The Darkness The Takeover Bid Collective Amnesia The Brotherhood of Clans Bible Stories Hell on Earth Arabian Knights The Cracks Appear Eagle Tails The Rule of Science The World at War Big is Beautiful The New World Order When Will We Ever Learn? PART TWO: The Light Goodbye to All That The Economics of Enough The Politics of People The Science of Sanity Bricks in the Wall Exploitation of the Spirit The World Needs Rebels As the pandemic takes hold across the world, some businesses are getting crushed. Others are thriving like Amazon which announced 100,000 new hires to help manage the rush of online orders. Economists say the coronavirus pandemic might lead to long-term changes in how people spend, work, and live. We are going through such disruption that people are adapting by getting online deliveries, communicating online, and learning online. We have just started asking the question, "how much of this is going to stick around once the coronavirus leaves our world?" It turns out a quiet bit of this may lead to semi-permanent changes in the way we work and live. There are some businesses who are getting hammered, some who are thriving and there are some who are reinventing. But it is interesting to point out that there are some new heroes you may have seen in your Facebook feed like janitors, childcare workers, grocery store clerks, etc. which they are moving up in popularity and appreciation. All of these folks are added to an elevated risk for infection. The Targeted United States In most US states, restaurants, bars, hair, salons, and coffee houses against the interests of business owners as a means to stop the spread of the coronavirus. Obviously a great time to be Amazon and other online businesses but it's a terrible time to be a local restaurant, grocery store, or any business that requires to have face to face contact. As a result, millions of people have already lost their jobs, homeless people are being charged for disobeying the social distancing and fear of inequality is surrounding the nation. The impacts of the coronavirus are cutting across the nation's more than $20 trillion economy. Governments claim that without extreme measures, many more will die, and hospital beds will overflow. "You have to keep the reaction in proportion to the problem," David says. "so maybe more needs doing in parts of Italy." On 18th March, David Icke appeared as a guest on London Real to discuss his view on the coronavirus and the global lockdown happening right now. He has argued for years that the financial elites are attempting to create what he dubs the "Hunger Games society." Most people live in poverty while a few at the top enjoy the vast wealth and protection which enforces strict controls on most people "This 'hunger games society' is designed to have no small business, no medium-sized business globally, just gigantic corporations that control and produce everything... What this coronavirus hysteria is creating is a situation unfolding by the hour worldwide that is destroying small business, family business, [and] even medium-sized business." — David Icke It's hard to disagree that the biggest impact of the virus will be economic, and David's explanation fits in with the globalist agenda that so many patriots and concerned citizens have been working to expose for several decades. According to David Icke The world is controlled by a cult. It's a cult with no borders that operates in all the major countries and in fact, all the countries in the end. So the cult will be at the core of the system in America and China. It is the structure of a pyramid in which at the top of it a tiny few, enormously wealthy people that actually are connected to this cult. They have a name called the 1%. At the bottom of this pyramid in the Hunger Games society is basically the rest of humanity that is dependent upon the 1%. In between the two is a vicious merciless police-military state to impose the will of the 1% on the population. This hunger games society is not classic fascism. It's not classic communism although the outcome in terms of tyranny is the same. It is a technocracy. A technocracy is defined as a society that is controlled by bureaucrats, experts, scientists, engineers, and technocrats. The ability of that situation to happen is through smart technology and AI. The idea is that everything will be connected to AI. Silicon Valley tells that in the period around 2030, people will have a situation where the human brain will start to be connected to AI and thus whoever controls the AI will be connecting and driving the perceptions of humanity.
