But if you ever lentTo the zodiac signs of the people you have dated in the past, you may have noticed that some signs are more challenging to deal with. This because some zodiacal combinations really go much better than others. So what is the worst zodiac zodiac So far, based on your zodiac sign? "Astrology is a great tool you can use to identify and articulate your needs, not only in your career and your health, but especially in your relationships", says Kristina Semos, astrologer and owner of AstroOils. "Reading your own chart (or having yourself read by a professional) can give you an idea of everything", says Semos, from your flirting style and how you want to be courted, to what matters most to you in a relationship, how much independence you need, how traditional or non-traditional you might be, who you are immediately looking for "According to Semos, astrological compatibility is not strictly a yes or a no. "Certain combinations of zodiac signs tend to fit more easily than others naturally, but there are real pros and cons to every dynamic", he says. "Even if all the signs indicate àNo! Avoid dating that zodiacal sign! àyou could completely benefit from it in some way if you remain open-minded!" You'll just have to prepare for a few bumps along the way.If you're a person who really loves a challenge, here's the worst zodiac sign you could ever encounter, based on your sign.Aries (21 March à 19 April): Capricorn Aries, it is easy to understand why you are attracted to Capricorn. Like you, they're ambitious, motivated, and they aim to be the best. You see them as the perfect partner to conquer the world. However, you both want to be the leader in the relationship, and that's a big problem. "Aries wants to do what it wants, while Capricorn wants to be in control", says Semos. À "Unless there are other influences in their charts, power dynamics may be too rigid to make it work".Torus (April 20 - May 20): Aquarius When you are a Taurus ruled by Venus, you expect your partner to fall in love, show you affection, and make you feel special. You want the traditional courtship. However, the Airy Aquarium is not at all traditional. "The Bull will probably shudder and feel embarrassed by the "out-of-ness" of Aquarius", says Semos. "They'll also have the commitment they crave". Even if you understand relationships aren't perfect and you're willing to put in the work, this pairing can take too much effort on your part. Twins (May 21 - June 20): Cancer Twins love to socialize. You are charming, a great flirt, and you can easily make friends with anyone and everyone. You're the soul of the party, and everyone wants to meet you. Cancer, on the other hand, is more of a wall flower. They prefer to stay at home, and only open to a select few. As Gemini, you'll see this as a bad match right away when you want to go out on weekends, while your partner wants to stay and watch movies. According to Semos, "Geminis could really get bored, and Cancer won't get a deep emotional validation." Too incompatible. Cancer (June 21, July 22): Sagittarius Six sensitive, sweet, and take taking to the heart. You're the kind of sign that reminds you of every little offensive thing you've ever been told, meanwhile, the sagittarius is the guy who sticks his foot in his mouth every day without thinking twice. According to semos, "Cancer will never recover from a false step before the satirist says the next insensitive thing." Besides, you are the birthplace of the zodiac while the satirist is the explorer who loves freedom. There is a good chance that you will constantly fight about how long you will spend together. Leo (July 22-) fishes like the royal lion, tends to love being attracted and admired. Although fish can do their part in making you feel special, they can be very difficult to spot. "Leo also wants total devotion and commitment" in practice loyalty with capital, says semos. "The fish, however, tend to have a wandering eye. It's a recipe for betraying and hurting feelings, especially when the highs are so high. Your relationship will be a classic case of things that will go wrong once the honeymoon period is over. Virgo (23 August 22 September): aries in addition to the fact that you both fight for perfection, you and rams don't have much to offer. in common to be a good couple. First of all, you are very organized and you like to plan your life until the last second, while Ariete is spontaneous and does what he likes at the moment. according to semos, also virgos loves to serve, while aries loves to make decisions and take all the spoils. "If you like a bdsm dynamic, this is perfect," he says. "But if you want a more traditional relationship, this can shave the abuse, especially if the virgo lets itself be dragged by steam. «Bilancia (23 September 22 October): virgin on the bright side, you and the virgin are intellectual signs, so you will always have interesting conversations. but according to semos, chemistry does not exist for a romantic relationship. "Book wants to be drunk, supper and cured, but the virgin is not a very assertive sign," he says. "There will be a lot of "Where do you want to eat?" you want to eat!" The exchanges and no decisions are ever taken." As a sign ruled by veins, you have a goto for luxury, which will vanquish the most practical and conservative Virgin. Scorpio (23 October 21-) twins is easy to understand why twins will attract your attention. They are smart, charming, and have a way to make you feel understood. being one of the most frantic signs of the zodiac, you will find their interactions with you rather refreshing. Just like you, they tend to play mental games with others to measure them. you will be curious to see how far these games can get. However, you are a person who must fully trust his partner. Unfortunately, you will never know how true the last comment of gemini was. according to semos, scorpion also needs deep emotional intimacy, while twinsOnly give you some superficial charm. This is it will be fun while it lasts, but it is not worth investing too much emotional energy in. Sagittarius (22 November - 21 December): Scorpio is no secret that you love your freedom. You're the zodiac explorer, and you have to be out in the world, otherwise you'll start feeling restless and unlike you. When you're the type that's always on the move, you need a partner who's beautiful with your lifestyle. Scorpio is not that partner. According to Semos, Scorpio is the type of partner that needs to know where their other significant is located. In addition, you like to explore new ideas, places and philosophies, while Scorpio will cross his arms and will not be dedicated. à€ œTotal BuzzkillÀ »SEMOS Says.Capricorn (22 December à€" 19 January): Aries When you're a whim, you tend to be attracted to as ambitious as you are. After all, you're very practical. Try to go for people who can help elevate your state somehow. While Aries has what it takes to be that person for you, they'll probably take you a lot of head while both want to be in charge. According to Semos, the Capricorns also care about their reputation, and Aries sometimes Brash and impulsive behavior could be a shut off for you. à € "May May The image The Capricorn has worked so hard, à €" Dice.aquarius (20 January à € "18 February): Capricorn as the most unconventional and far-sighted sign of the zodiac, Capricorn represents everything that tends to hate. For example, Aquarius plays with his own rules and does things in their own way, while Capricorn covers all the rules and tradition. According to Semos, "Aquarius is about the power of power", while Capricorn is embodied "Man"! " You're likely to give a couple of Capricorn dates before you decide to ghost them. Even if you love to engage in debates, your beliefs are too different to make it work in the long term. Fish (19 February à € "20 March): Leo both you and Leo are real romantics who love to be in love. However, this is about where your similarities end. According to Semos, Leos needs the complete attention of his partner most of the time, while Fish love to be left in their dream world. Leo might find you to be a little too spacious for their liking, while you will be left feeling a child who continues to get into trouble with their teacher. Like Fish, you're also one of the slowest signs to commit. You prefer to go with the flow and see where things go. This can be extremely frustrating for a Leo who always wants definitive answers. Overall, it will be a frustrating relationship for you both. Source: Kristina Semos, Astrologue and owner of Astrooils Astrooils
