Statement for the State Report This is to inform that this report entitled Å ¢ Working Capital Management From Ring Luster Textile Limited ¢ was prepared for academic purposes as required by our EMBA Curriculum program, speaker Prof. M. Abdullah, Professor, Dhaka International University, Bangladesh. It is to be evaluated as a part of our examination of this EMBA program. This has not been prepared for any other purpose, such as reproduction, research, or publication. I declare that the whole work, if not otherwise, recognized and Atm Saiful Islammba: 5 Å Batchroll No. 24Dhaka International University You may also like: MBA Internship Navigation Message Report The report is prepared on the basis of two (02) months of practical experience in Exim Bank of the limited Bangladesh that original work and all the references were mentioned here. helps a lot to know the Practical situation of a financial institution and implement theoretical knowledge for the practical and realistic work environment. Exim Bank of the limited Bangladesh plays an important role to move the economic of the country. Provide different types of credit and regimes as against the loan loan goods (LIM), Trust Receipt, Bank Guarantee, industrial loan, SOD, consumer credit scheme, Executives Car Loan, Home Finance is the main spring of the credit department. In general, the word BANK we can easily understand that the financial institution do with the money .But there are several types of banks such as central banks, commercial banks, investment banks and cooperative banking system, etc. Banking occupies a an important place in the economy Nationa know because of its role as intermediary, ensures the allocation of resources and re allocation and maintains the momentum of economic activity. One of the largest companies conducted by the commercial bank's foreign trade. The trade between countries falls for close liaison between the parties that deal with trade. The situation requires expertise in the field of foreign activities. The bank, which provides this operation is referred to as tearing international banking operation. Mainly transactions with overseas countries are aspects of import; export and foreign remittance is under the preview of foreign exchange transactions. International trade requires a flow of goods from the buyer and the payment from the buyer and the seller. This study aims to provide valuable practical knowledge me with the consideration of my theoretical knowledge I gain from the MBA program at the University of Stamford Bangladesh, Department of Business Administration. It also will help me to develop my concept of Islamic banking and IT operations. The objectives are: To observe the entire bank branch procedures. To make a bridge between the theory and the practical procedures in a real life situation. To understand the terms that was taught during my MBA at the University in a real life situation of the customer as well as affiliate Exim Bank Limited as a whole. To present my observations and suggestions to the bank and to raise awareness. To analyze and understand the customer's minds to the Exim Bank Limited. Exim Bank of Bangladesh Limited, Dhanmondi Branch, the scope of the study is limited only to this branch. This report covers all areas of activity of the Bank Exim Bank Bangladesh Limited. In Dhanmondi Branch including Customer Service, remittance, cash, accounts, investments and Foreign Exchange Department. The report is limited to understand the activities of the various departments, rather than aiming for a thorough analysis of the entire banking operated by Exim Bank of Bangladesh Limited. E 'was beyond the scope of this report to study the whole process of every single department because of feasibility considerations and time. To prepare I face some limitations relationship they have access to data on different indication Exim Bank of Bangladesh Limited performance. Customers have shown very negative approach to give their views to the questionnaires. They were much more conservative to answer questions and think that the study is just for passing time; only to meet the requirement. They did not think that is crucial to our business degree to gain practical knowledge. The sample size is more limited because of the relationship © certain number of customers have been agreed to ask wit me on the topic and to respond Finally, try some recent data that were needed to enrich the relationship. But the lack of will of the Exim Bank executives due to confidentiality Bangladesh Limited was made my intention vain. For each search, some assumptions have to be made. The hypothesis Made with respect to the respondent ¢ s, the organization, the market and its conditions hoping that the result will be like that of the objectives presented. Å, â ¢ collection of data through personal interview with structured questionnaire is easy and correct. Ã ¢ â ¢ the IL The methodology for the study is appropriate. Ã ¢ â, ¬ â ¢ The size of the sample of 50 from different places is adequate to analyze the satisfaction of foreign currency customers by Exim Bank of Bangladesh Limited and represents the population of the study. A total of 50 interviewees from different places by the Intercetic Shopping Center are taken as a sample for the probability that comfort sampling technique is used because it is the least expensive and the considerable minimum of all sampling techniques and sampling units are easily accessible. The study contains both primary and secondary data were collected by national and international sources. The data was collected through the survey with the 50 clients that use dichotomic questions, decisive questions, short-click, open alleviews and more choices on 5 points.
